Police Report Two Accidents

Police reported Saturday two traffic accidents occur-ing last night.

At 11:30 p. m., a 1937 Chevrolet, owned by Algan Moore, on east Washington near Deem's Steak House, was involved in a collision with a 1942 Ford.

The damage to both cars amounted to about $225.
The chief said that a head-on collision occurred on road 43 at the intersection with the old Rockland, just north of the Big Creek Friday night.

It was said by police that W. Davis, of Crawford-ville, driving a 1941 Ford coach, and Arthur Mobley, of Bloomington, driving a 1936 Chevrolet, were involved. Fortunately, no one was injured but both cars were damaged.

Chief Clapp also reported that on Friday night, three panes of a window on the north side of a high school building in the neighborhood of the room encountered nothing was found to be the cause.

Years Ago

IN GREENCASTLE
L. O'Hair was elected member of the Chamber of Commerce. Miss Helen Black was elected assistant secretary.
Miss Mrs. Andy Sanford was elected to Illinois.
Stewart was here enroute from Lafayette to Terre Haute where he had been transferred by the Kroger Company.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

GREENCASTLE had a full quota of professional men in 1880 —Not very long ago, Greencastle had few doctors but in the past year this has been remedied—But in 1880, the people had no worries in this respect and had many from which to choose—Here are the names of the professional men in those "good old days"—Physicians: Dr. G. W.
Taylor, Evans and Devere, H. R. and J. Pitchlynn, A. G. Preston, W. DeWitt Hill, Dr. J. M. Knight, G. Sythe, Dr. G. W. Bence—Attorneys: Renbrey Wright and John D. Reed, J. Birch, James J.
Smiley and Willis G. Neff, William McK. Milligan, John R.
Miller, Thomas Hanna and Silas A. Hays—Dentists: Dr. A. T.
Keightley, Dr. J. W. Hollingsworth, Dr. W. G. Overstreet—

PUTNAM COUNTY FAIR
"Open to the world" was the way in which the Putnam County Agricultural Society advertised its 24th annual fair—"The officers and the board of directors have made full and complete arrangements for the "grandest exhibition" ever held in Putnam county; every accommodation will be furnished. The secretary is daily in receipt of calls for premium lists from all parts of this and adjoining states, in which they give assurance of their intention to attend the fair with their celebrated herds of cattle, horses, hogs and sheep. There will also be entered a number of the fastest horses on record." It must have really been a grand occasion but we still think out more recent Putnam County Fairs have been in the running.

COLLECTED $37.30—Elijah Eaton collected $37.30 at the recent two days meeting of the colored M. E. church, held in the Brick Chapel fair grounds. A part of the money was applied to paying back debts and the rest was used in paying the transportation of the ministers.—The ministers must have lived fairly close to Brick Chapel or else the debt wasn't reduced very much.
ALAS—HOPED IN VAIN—
"We have some good news for the children of Greencastle. The trustees has substituted White's Arithmetic for the abominable work of French, which is laid aside, let us hope, forever." Personally, I'll take vanilla—

WHAT'S ALL THIS?—"Major Birch and Jesse Weik have had a painter at work the past week 'cutting up dicos' in their office."

CHORAL UNION IN 'THE PASSION' NEXT WEDNESDAY

PROF. GEORGE GOVE TO CONDUCT PERFORMANCE
BY MUSICIANS

The DePauw - Greencastle's Choral Union, a group of more than 100 students and townspeople who "just like to sing", will present their fifth major program March 19 singing the majestic "The Passion According to St. Matthew," by Johann Sebastian Bach.

Reorganized in 1944, the Choral Union presents Handel's "The Messiah" over nation-wide network during the Christmas season of that year. The production was repeated the following Christmas and in 1946 the group sang selections of familiar yuletide music.
"Seven Last Words," by Du Bois, was sung during the 1946 Lenten season.

Soloists with the Choral Union this year will be William Gen-hart, baritone, a DePauw graduate, and William Hess, tenor.
Genhart has been acclaimed for his performance with the Bethlehem Bach Festival, the Desoff Choirs, the Bach Choir of Utica and the Bach Circle of New York.
Hess, formerly of the Philadelphia Opera company, performed the "St. John Passion" with the New York Cantata singers under the baton of Arthur Mendel.

Currently Hess is featured weekly with the Columbia Broadcasting System Symphony Orchestra on Monday night.
The chorals used by Bach in the Passion are based on the early Lutheran chorals of the Protestant church. These, in turn, had their origin in the folk songs, secular melodies and Ambrosian lyrics of the Medieval period.
Richly harmonized by Bach, these chorales exert a religious and mystic effect which has never been surpassed.

The libretto, based upon the 26th and 27th chapters of St. Matthew's gospel was written by Pi-cander, collaborating with Bach.
The music score calls for two separate four-part choirs. The Disciples, the innermost circle and core of the Christian community, are represented by the first choir—the DePauw University choir. The larger congregation of believers, styled by Picander, "The Faithful," are represented by the Choral Union.

In movements where a wider emotion is voiced, the two groups unite. They lose their identity also in the tumultuous scenes around the cross depicting the passionate fanaticism of the populace.

Prof. George Gove of DePauw will conduct the performance.
Accompaniments will be provided by a group of solo instruments from DePauw University orchestra.

This choral work will be presented mid-way in a conference on church music, to be held under the auspices of the Crusade for Christ program at DePauw. Among guests who will lead the conference will be C. Harold Einecke of St. Louis; G. Russell Wing, LaGrange, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Porter of Dayton, O., and Van Denman Thompson, director of the School of music at DePauw.

Professor Gove and Mrs. Bernice Fee Mozingo, instructor in organ, also will participate in the two-day program.

McNear Reward Totals $37,655

PEORIA, Ill., March 15.—(UP)— Rewards totaling $37,655 mation leading to the arrest and conviction of the shotgun slayer of George P. McNear, Jr., president of the strike-bound Toledo,

The largest reward—$25,000—was offered by the railroad. The rest of the money, collected by radio station WMBD, included the Caterpillar Tractor Company, $5,000; The Peoria Newspapers, Inc., $3,000 and WMBD, $1,000.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation officially entered the case yesterday, but like police apparently lacked a suspect.

'REDS INCITE STRIKES'

Former communist editor, Louis Budenz, tells the House labor committee that the Communist party attempted to incite strikes in the U. S. "as a prime instrument for bringing about Soviet dictatorship."

Marion Tp. Farm Bureau Meeting

Marion Township Farm Bureau met on Thursday evening at the Fillmore school building.
Carl Arnold called the meeting to order, after the singing of a patriotic song Charles Snodgrass led the group in prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clodfelter were introduced as guests. Mrs.
Clodfelter is assistant social and educational leader of the county.
Mrs. Ethel Sears accompanied Warren Ray Robinson and Verlin Cash who sang a group of songs which were enjoyed immensely by their audience. Annabelle Ellen Sears gave a reading.

Mr. Arnold introduced Mr.
Tom Hendricks, manager of the Putnam County Farm Bureau Hatchery. Mr. Hendricks' delinquency of a speech is a good beginning and a good ending coupled fairly close together. He certainly kept this in mind while telling of his headaches and troubles due to the recent fire.

Those present were greatly interested in hearing how through cooperation of nearby Co-Op Hatcheries practically all orders for chicks will be filled. Having started with one hatchery in 1932 Farm Bureau now has thirty-six hatcheries in Indiana selling high quality guaranteed chicks. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Hendricks used the new Farm Bureau movie projector to show a film of wildlife, one on the use of Phenothazine and another of interesting features of our own 1946 County Fair.

Refreshments were served after the meeting was adjourned.
Mrs. Earl Cash, Mrs. Cecil Arnold and Mrs. James Giddings are on the refreshment committee for the next meeting, April 10. It was hinted that they plan a surprise.

ANOTHER RED BLAST

LONDON, March 15.—(UP)— The Soviet press and radio fired another heavy barrage at President Truman's new foreign policy today, describing it as an aggressive effort to dominate Greece and Turkey.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper in Moscow, stated Soviet opposition to Mr. Truman's speech in terms almost identical with those used by Izvestia Friday. The comment was broadcast by the Moscow radio.

14 CHURCHES OF CITY TO MAKE SURVEY SUNDAY

TEAMS WILL CONDUCT CAN-VASS HERE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Canvassing teams who will conduct the church membership survey in Greencastle and community Sunday afternoon, March 16, will meet at the Presbyterian church at 1:30 p. m. for final instructions. It has been announced by Willard Umbreit, laymen's committee chairman.

Residents of the community will be asked to list their church membership or preference when the workers call at their homes.
About 114 church workers will take part in the survey and will work in teams of two, three and four members.

The city has been laid out in districts so that no person will have to visit more than 15 homes. Since the Girl Scout convention is to be held in Gobin church Sunday afternoon, plans have been made to carry out part of the survey there. If there is duplication, Mr. Umbreit said, they will be taken care of in his office when all cards are in.

This is the first comprehensive church survey of the community for several years. All 14 churches will benefit from the canvass, the chairman said. The project originated with the Greencastle Ministerial Association and is being carried out by a laymen's committee consisting of Mr. Um-breit, Ernie Collins and Phil Scroggin.

2 Farm Escapes Back In Custody

Freedom secured illegally Friday night, proved short-lived for two penal farm inmates who escaped from the institution at Putnamville at 7:15 p. m.

Chester Perish, 20, sentenced from Henry county, and Shelby Settles, 21, Clark county, were found hiding in a hay stack at the edge of Cloverdale town marshal, at 12:30 a. m. Saturday.

The two were turned over to state policeman Williams and farm authorities. They were taken back to the farm and will face arraignment in the Putnam circuit court on escape charges.

Want More Data On Greek Aid

WASHINGTON, March 15.—
(UP)—Senators planned today to deluge the administration with questions about what projected aid to Greece and Turkey means to the future of the United States.

The questions were being framed at the invitation of Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg of the Foreign Relations Committee. He will put them before administration spokesmen at open hearings on President Truman's $400,000,000 anti-Communist program.

While details of the program have not been made public, a congressional source said the State Department was recommending that $400,000,000 be placed with the President to be spent at his discretion. Any such proposal would run into heavy opposition from congressmen insistent upon specifying spending authority.

To Demand 20c Wage Increase

CHICAGO, March 15.—(UP)— Union spokesmen for 500,000 railway shop craft employees predicted today that their demands for a 20 cents hourly wage boost would set the pace for all of the nation's 1,000,000 non-operating railway employees.
The wage demands were announced by seven non-operating unions, after an AFL railway employees wage conference, attended by 700 delegates yesterday. Their demands were the first made by any of the nation's 22 standard railroad unions.

Fillmore Wins Junior Tourney

Fillmore's entry in the Putnam county Junior High basketball tournament held in the Greencastle gymnasium won the championship Friday night by defeating the Greencastle Juniors, 20 to 16, in the final game.

It was a happy group of Fillmore boys and girls that noisily celebrated their team's victory after the contest.

Fillmore advanced to the championship round by eliminating Cloverdale Friday afternoon.
The Greencastle Juniors went to the finals by taking the measure of the Bainbridge Juniors.

Human Eye Is Flown By Plane

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.— (UP)—A human eye, delicately suspended in a jar packed in dry ice, was flown eastward across the continent today to restore the sight of a blind person in New York City.

Riding in a carton in the pilots' compartment of a Trans-World Airlines Constellation, the eye left San Francisco at 12:30 a. m. EST. It was scheduled to arrive in New York at 1:50 p. m.
EST today.

The highly perishable eye was taken from the body of an unidentified veteran soon after he died at the Fort Miley Veterans' hospital here yesterday afternoon. Dr. J. V. Smith, chief surgeon at Ft. Miley, said he would not reveal the name of the veteran in deference to the wishes of the dead man's widow.

After the operation the eye was rushed to the eye bank at Stanford University hospital. No sightless person was immediately available there for an operation.

Officials there wired the other three American eye banks.
The eye bank in New York City replied that it had immediate use for the sight-giving cornea.

Speed was essential. The delicate lens in the eye would be useless unless it were used within 48 hours. Stanford immediately made the necessary arrangements and the cardboard container and its precious cargo were whisked to Mills Field.

Although classified as an air express shipment, the container was not entrusted to the baggage compartment. It was given to the captain in charge of the flight, who placed it carefully on the floor beside him in the pilot's compartment.

"SEITZ" SITS IN JAIL

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., March 14.—(UP)—The romance of the baby sitter who married the "baby" he was hired to watch —was on the rocks today.
James Schuffert, 20, was doing his sitting in jail and he blamed all his troubles on the interference of his mother-in-law with his marriage.

Delores, Schuffert's 13-year-old bride, was home with mama after a spat with her husband. She asked for an annulment and

2 Million Nazis Are Still POW

MOSCOW, March 15 (UP)— The Big Four revealed today that together they hold nearly 2,000,000 Germans as prisoners of war outside Germany almost two years after the European war ended. Nearly half—890,532 —are held by the Russians.

Probably a great many more German prisoners are being held by the victors, in addition to those accounted for in the figures released by the foreign ministers. Statistics for the Soviet and British zones of Germany, Poland and former Nazi Satellite countries in Eastern Europe were not published.

Release of the long secret Soviet figures during the night gave the world for the first time a fairly comprehensive picture of the fate of Germans captured during the war.

VET INFORMATION

Indiana veterans awaiting assistance checks from the Veterans Administration have been wasting money on long distance calls to the VA offices in St. Louis, under the erroneous impression that the office there is responsible for the issuance of such checks under the GI Bill.

St. Louis officials informed the Indiana Regional Office they believed the calls resulted from information that the St. Louis disbursing office of the Treasury Department issues checks for veterans training in Indiana.

The Treasury Department's disbursing office only completes the routine of filling out and mailing the checks after the information has been furnished by the Indiana VA office.

Any questions involving VA payments to Indiana veterans must be referred to the VA Regional Office in Indianapolis and veterans are advised that calls to the VA office in St. Louis or to the Treasury disbursing office are a waste of money.

MISS MARGARET GILMORE INSTRUMENTAL IN GREENCASTLE GIRL SCOUT MOVEMENT

In recognition of the thirty-fifth anniversary of Girl Scouting many messages have been received by the national organization, messages of greeting to Girl Scouts throughout the country.

President Harry S. Truman says, in part, "No more timely theme could have been chosen than 'Better Citizens Build a Better World,' emphasizing as that theme does the value of the many wholesome character-building activities of Scouting in relation to the world's need for tolerance and understanding among nations and peoples."

As a part of his greeting General Dwight D. Eisenhower says, "The United States of today is a better place to live in because the Girl Scouts of America have been a leaven working in the homes and communities of the land. I am sure that the world of tomorrow will be the better because, joined with your associate organizations on all the continents, you extend the influence of womanhood and amplify the role of woman in world affairs."

The W. S. C. S. of the Cloverdale Methodist church held an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Zella Hedrich. Twenty-one members were present and two guests, Mrs. Walter Williams and her mother, Mrs. Fish.

Mrs. Bartlett Tells Club of Activities of UN Sessions

The annual spring luncheon of the Cloverdale New Era Club was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hughes. About thirty club members and guests were present to hear Mrs. E. R. Bartlett speak on "Women United for United Nations."

The speaker, who had been an official observer in the UNO Conference in San Francisco and also a recent visitor to the council in New York, presented her topic in a most interesting and pleasing manner. She gave a very capable and inspiring account of the activities of women in this organization, including the representative of the United Council of Church Women, the representative from India and other countries.

Her address was filled with the importance of the equality of sex, both socially and politically for people of every land and nation.

One could not listen to Mrs. Bartlett without being conscious of the fact that upon the American woman of today rests a great responsibility. She impressed upon her listeners the urgent need for women to keep informed upon the legislation of this great organization, and the securing of world peace. Then and only then will women all over the world be placed upon a higher plane of living.

Last, but not least, Mrs. Bartlett emphasized the fact that if only one generation of children could be reared in the right Christian atmosphere it only today's children could be free from bad habits and sin, the problems of the world could be solved—for upon their shoulders rests the future of the world. Parents, mothers, club women, teachers, it is our duty to train the present generation to walk in the path that our Master walked—the pathway of obedience. Mothers, beware, you can shape the destiny of tomorrow's world—it's the biggest job of all times.

Following the address, the club enjoyed a pleasant social hour. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Eliza Hurst March 26th.

Miss Croushore Bride Of Clair Williams

Miss Betty Jean Croushore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Croushore, became the bride of Clair Williams in a double-ring ceremony read at the local Christian Church, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Ralph Saunders. Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams of Cloverdale.

Mrs. A. L. Meredith, Organist, played Lehengrin's Processional as the wedding party entered and a program of bridal airs preceded and during the ceremony.

White snap-dragons and stock together with palms and ferns were used in the altar decorations. Seven-branch candelabra with white tapers flanked the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father was lovely in a pearl gray woolen two piece suit. The jacket had a peplum back and was buttoned down the front with a double row of silver buttons. She wore a white orchid corsage and her hat and pumps were black.

Mrs. Joseph Edward Wolfe of Noblesville and Hiram Callender of Greencastle attended the couple. Mrs. Wolfe was attired in a brown dressmaker suit with a portrait hat of Milan in a matching shade, and she wore a shoulder corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Tim Grimes and Harold Kaiser Jr. served as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are both employed by the Indiana Associated Telephone Corporation. Both are graduates of Greencastle High School and Mrs. Williams attended DePauw University.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at 619 east Washington street following the wedding for relatives and out-of-town guests.

Bouquets of pink and white flowers decorated the entertaining room. The dining table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Dining room assistants were: Mrs. Otto Dobbs, Mrs. Herbert Flint, Mrs. G. Earl Brown, and the Misses: Norma Lee Hill, Betty Jo Flint and Mrs. Wolfe.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Effie Carpenter of Center Point, Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Croushore of Fillmore; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brown and Mrs. J. E. Wolfe of Noblesville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Setz and Don Dobbs, Bloomington; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stanper of Lafayette; Mrs. Mary Clayton of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lee, Mrs. Betty Cooper, Mrs. Beatrice Belt, Mrs. Harry Weber, Mrs. Sylvia Carpenter of Indianapolis and Miss Fredia Hurst of Dunkirk.

As the guests started to play bridge a corsage was delivered to Miss Owens and it was a clever arrangement of kitchen utensils. The bridge prizes contained poems about gifts which were given to the bride-to-be.

Crepes paper streamers from the corners of the room to the table in the dining room where the gifts were placed carried out the chosen colors of the bride-elect. Lighted candles on the table were also in her colors.

OBITUARY

Melvina May Joseph, youngest of seven children who blessed the home of John and Matilda (Honey) May, was born February 1885, and departed into rest March 3, 1947, at the age of 62 years and 24 days.

When a young woman she was united in marriage to Gene Cleveland Joseph, to whom she remained a faithful wife and devoted partner. She was happy in the motherhood of six children: Elton and Harold of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary Luth of near Ladysburg and Oscar of Linton. Preceding her in death were a daughter, Ruth, and a son Harry.

Early in life she realized the love of her Heavenly Father and accepted Jesus as her Saviour and Guide through Life's highway. She became a member of the Primitive Baptist Church years ago and lived in that faith until her death.

Her life was enriched and made happier by nine grandchildren who survive: Millard, Barbara, Donald, Norma, David, Jimmy and Donna Joseph and Reva and Patricia Luth. Three daughters-in-law, Ruth and Lois, a step-law, Charles, and an aunt, Martha Burgen, several sons and nephews, and many neighbors and friends are also saddened by her passing. Chaplain James Whitcomb Riley's words a bit we say:

We cannot say and we will not say

That she is dead—she is just away!

With a cherry smile and a twinkle of the hand

She has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how we may

It needs must be, since she has

And you—oh you, with the best of

For the old time step and the glad return

Think of her faring on, as we

In the love of There as in the love of Here.

Think of her still the same, say;

She is not dead; she is just away.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to all our relatives and neighbors for the kindness shown us in the care of our beloved wife and mother, Melvina May Joseph. We especially wish to thank Rev. Gene Irwin and wife, the deacons of the beautiful floral offerings, the pallbearers, flower bearers and the funeral directors, Mr. and Mrs. Sands.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

"as the twig is bent"

BOTH CHILDREN AND PARENTS BENEFIT FROM SUNDAY SCHOOL

Why not go with your children to Sunday School at the church of your choice? The Sunday School in your neighborhood invites your entire family to its groups of study and worship. Christian faith will prove a permanent foundation only through cooperative effort on the part of both parent and teacher. The surest way to build character is through Bible study. Your children need the inspirational teaching in faith and morals which the home alone cannot impart. Attend Sunday school with your youngsters this Sunday, and then stay for church.

You and your family will reap great spiritual rewards by regularly going to Sunday School putting of Kingdom business, that is, the work of God, as our primary occupation, whatever our vocation may be. It involves retreat, penitence, renewal, rest and work for God. Only in such a renewed consecration can we find the true meaning of Lent, the true meaning of Christian life in our personal experience this year.

Looking at Life

Erich Brandeis'

I was reading the Sunday funnies.

But I couldn't concentrate.

Then I suddenly realized what it was.

An unearthly noise was coming out of the radio.

Clashes of all sorts of instruments—bing, bang, boom, grrrr—it sounded like a million dishes being rattled in the kitchen sink.

"For heaven's sake, turn off that ungodly racket," I said to my wife, who was listening raptly. "I want to enjoy Jiggs and Maggie."

"You lowbrow," she said contemptuously. "that is Toscanini directing Paul Dukas' 'Ariane and Bluebeard.' It is beautiful."

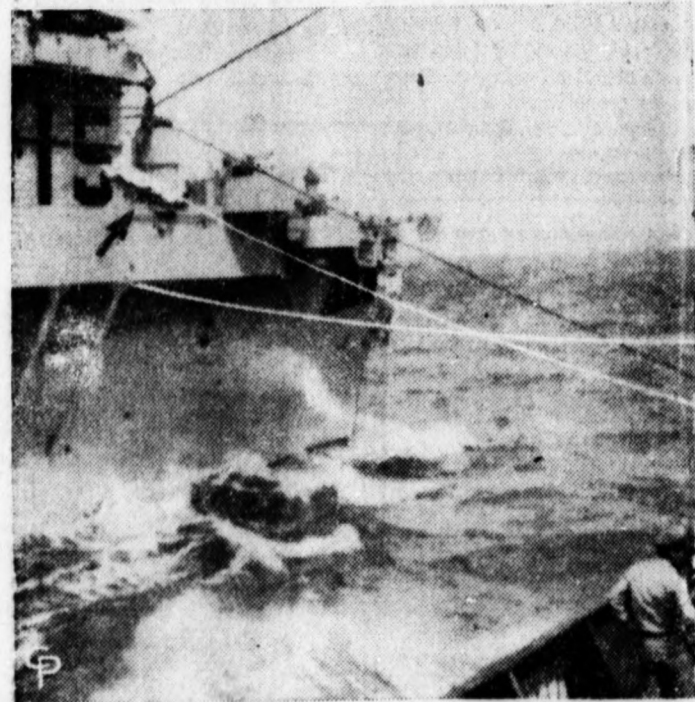

"I don't care what it is," I retorted. "I still think it is terrible."

I went over to the radio, but, before turning it off, I switched the dial to another station, and out came "How are things in Glocca Mora?"

"Now that's what I call music," I said to my wife, and listened right to the end of the song.

In the meantime she had gone to her own room and turned on her own little radio. She had closed the door, but I could still faintly hear that awful Toscanini noise and it took me until the end of the concert to find out what Maggie did to Jiggs this fine Sunday.

HARRY STICKEL

One mile east of Clinton Falls.

That was yesterday

This morning I read the learned music critic's review of yesterday's Toscanini concert.

"Mr. Toscanini's reading and the orchestra's rendering of his unique work was impeccable for clarity and chord balance," he wrote. "The whole concert, indeed, was unusually fine, and the audience cheered at the end."

I did not find a single word of praise for the rendition of that "Glocca Mora" song.

So there you are

At dinner last night my wife told me that I ought to be ashamed of myself for having such unrefined musical taste.

But I am not, and I said to my wife:

"Well, I like caviar and you hate it."

"Caviar is a very refined dish and those stewed tomatoes you are so crazy about are very common."

"You can't argue about taste. Personally I like music with a lilt, I like pictures that I can understand and that stir my emotions, and I like stories with a good love angle and a happy ending."

My wife, having been married to me for a long time, did not argue further, but looked entirely unconvinced by my culinary illustration of good taste.

Don't worry if you don't like highbrow music or art or literature.

Some of the most refined people I know love jazz and detective stories and Esquire cartoons.

If you feel it, it is good for you.

I'd rather be a sincere lowbrow than a pretending highbrow.
